no one who has felt the life changing pull of emerson s enormous planetary mind has ever doubted his power or his greatness though we are often puzzled to know whether he is primarily a poet an essayist or a philosopher richard geldard is not puzzled at all by this he has written a book that plainly shows emerson to be essentially a teacher the socrates of concord a man with a message that we need to hear today previous generations beheld god and nature face to face emerson says and adds provocatively that we moderns seem able only to see those things through the eyes of the earlier generations why he asks and the question is intended to shatter our complacency why should not we also enjoy an original relation to the universe why should not we have a poetry and philosophy of insight and not of tradition and a religion by revelation to us and not the history of theirs emerson s life was devoted to showing how one may still attain an original that is to say an authentic relation to the universe and geldard s book aims to focus and distill the famously dispersed emerson and put his central teachings into the modern reader s hand previous edition titled the esoteric emerson the spiritual teachings of ralph waldo emerson click here to read an interview with the author richard geldard

we call attention to the harsh reality that we are living in troubled times we are especially conscious of climate change and covid 19 we underline that these challenges impact all people in light of this reality we use ten primary questions that all human beings ask consciously or unconsciously and then amplify each of the ten primary questions with nine additional sub questions we then draw upon one of the great teachers of spiritual wisdom buddha mores jesus muhammad etc with a brief quote and then write a short wisdom response to the question by wisdom we mean a body of accumulated reflection about the character and meaning of life spiritual wisdom suggests an outlook or attitude that enables us to cope a deeper way of knowing and learning the art of living in rhythm with the soul we use the life experience of three authors coming from different religious and cultural outlooks
