this book tells the story of one of the largest and most influential african churches in south africa in 1910 isaiah shembe was struggling he had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show little did he know that he would soon establish the nazareth church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in south africa by his death in 1935 shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the black people in a prophet of the people isaiah shembe and the making of a south african church historian lauren v jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of south africa s most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern south africa following shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape south africa today this is the standard guide to south african historical literature compiled by four prominent historians and listing more than 4500 items there are also several references to namibia mainly in section 18 south africa in southern africa a detailed subject index makes the bibliography easy to consult but there are no annotations eriksen moorsom 1989 joel cabrita tells the story of zionism which began in a utopian community near chicago in 1900 its faith healing spiritualism uplifting pan racialism and missionary zeal resonated with marginalized urban working class whites and blacks in both the united states and southern africa today zionism is southern africa s largest religious movement from beyond the black stump to the australian alps in schools on stations missions mines and over the air it takes a special kind of person to be an outback teacher back then not only did we have to teach the three rs but also sewing arts and craft music physical education you name it plus there were the duties of gardener cleaner nurse registrar office administrator free milk dispenser librarian and on occasions school bus driver oh and in one school i was even responsible for mother craft and being male and just nineteen as i was at the time you might imagine my surprise when a young
