alba donati was used to her hectic life working as a book publicist in italy a life that made her happy and allowed her to meet prominent international authors but she was ready to make a change one day she decided to return to lucignana the small village in the tuscan hills where she was born there she opened a tiny but enchanting bookshop in a lovely little cottage on a hill surrounded by gardens filled with roses and peonies with fewer than 200 year round residents alba s shop seemed unlikely to succeed but it soon sparked the enthusiasm of book lovers both nearby and across italy after surviving a fire and pandemic restrictions the bookshop on the hill soon became a refuge and destination for an ever growing community the locals took pride in the bookshop from alba s centenarian mother to her childhood friends and the many volunteers who help in the day to day running of the shop and in short time it has become a literary destination with many devoted readers coming from afar to browse enjoy a cup of tea and find comfort in the knowledge that alba will find the perfect read for them
