the first multi volume collection to present a critical overview of the history and culture of japanese art based on a comprehensive work produced by japan s art scholars this volume is a chronological and historical overview of japanese painting sculpture textiles ceramics woodblock prints lacquer ware and metalwork the complex and coherent development of japanese art during thecourse of the nineteenth century was inadvertently disrupted by apolitical event the meiji restoration of 1868 scholars of both the preceding edo 1615 1868 and the succeeding meiji 1868 1912 eras have shunned the decades bordering this arbitrary divide thus creating an art historical void that the former view as a period of waning technical and creative inventiveness and the latter as one threatened by meiji reforms and indiscriminate westernization and modernization challenging past and present to the contrary demonstrates that the period 1840 1890 as seen progressively rather than retrospectively experienced a dramatic transformation in the visual arts which in turn made possible the creative achievements of the twentieth century
