the homilies of st chrysostom on st matthew were undoubtedly delivered at antioch see hom vii p 105 and probably in the latter part of the time during which he preached as a presbyter montfaucon considers his little mention of the sin of swearing a sign of his having accomplished some reformation on that point by his previous exertions in the homilies delivered from 386 to 388 it is a constant topic and the homilies known to belong to that date are so numerous as scarcely to leave room for such a series as the present these however contain very little to mark the period to which they belong the argument from his reference to dissensions some time gone by possibly those between st meletius and paulinus and evagrius in commenting on st matt 23 6 is not very conclusive aeterna press the manifestly imperfect condition in which these homilies have come to us may partly be accounted for by the circumstances of the times in which they were preached it was in the easter weeks of the third year of his residence at constantinople as archbishop that st chrysostom began this course of sermons and during all the remaining part of that year a d 400 the capital of the east was kept in constant trouble and alarm by the revolt of gainas and the goths moreover scarcely had the preaching commenced when the complaints from the churches of asia minor were brought may 400 before the metropolitan see which business during many
