in this thoughtful comprehensive study of scripture tradition and the modern world John R. W. Stott brings readers face to face with the centrality of the cross in God's plan of redemption the mystery of the cross is a series of reflections on the passion of Christ and his death written by one of the best loved religious figures in the United Kingdom Cardinal Hume's other books include To Be a Pilgrim Searching for God the Mystery of Love Basil in Blunderland see listing on page 5 and footprints of the northern saints there is a lot of mystery surrounding the cross this book details a step by step account of the events leading to on the cross in the grave as well as events on the resurrection morning it sheds light on the spiritual significance of the three days and nights when Jesus Christ obtained the greatest victory for us

It is sometimes said that the great question of the hour for the church's belief is christological it is the question of Christ's person that is true but it is the question of the cross all the same. Ó p16 written over seventy years ago p t forsyth's 'Cruciality of the cross' continues to provide an excellent and vital foundation for an understanding of the Christian doctrine of the atonement

Why do you wear a cross? Why is the universal symbol of Christianity the method of Jesus' execution? Is this morbid fascination with crucifixion biblical? Is the death of Jesus to be the dominant theme of Christianity? What is the reason for the irrational contempt and hatred for the cross in today's culture? In understanding the mystery of the cross, author Mike Beecham explains why only crucifixion could redeem humanity. No other death would do some of the topics addressed in this book: how man was separated from God and reconciled to God at a tree; the similarities between Adam's fall and Jesus' crucifixion; how God used the blueprint of man's fall in the Garden of Eden as a pattern to follow to provide man's redemption at the cross of Christ; how this ancient event impacts our life today. Join the author on a journey to discover not only what happened to Jesus on that cross but what happened to you.

Overview to help celebrate the fourth centenary of the birth of St John of the Cross in 1542. Edith Stein received the task of preparing a study of his writings. She uses her skill as a philosopher to enter into an illuminating reflection on the difference between the two symbols of cross and night, pointing out how entering the night is synonymous with carrying the cross. She provides a condensed presentation of John's thought on the active and passive nights as discussed in the ascent of Mount Carmel and the dark night. All of this leads Edith to speak of the glory of resurrection that the soul shares through a unitive contemplation described chiefly in the living flame of love. In the summer of 1942 the Nazis without warrant took Edith away. The nuns found the manuscript of this profound study lying open in her room because of the Nazis' merciless persecution of Jews in Germany. Edith Stein traveled discreetly across the border into Holland to find safe harbor in the Carmel of Echt but the Nazi invasion of Holland in 1940 again put Edith in danger. The cross weighed down heavily as those of Jewish birth were harassed. Sr Teresa Benedicta of the Cross's superiors then assigned her a task they thought would take her mind off the threatening situation. The fourth centenary of the birth of St John of the Cross 1542 was approaching and Edith could surely contribute a valuable study for the celebration. It is no surprise that in view of her circumstances she discovered in the subject of the cross a central viewpoint for her study. A subject like this enabled her to grasp John's unity of being as expressed in his life and works. Using her training in phenomenology she helps the reader apprehend the difference in the symbolic character of cross and night and why the night symbol prevails in John. She clarifies that detachment is designated by him as a night through which the soul must pass to reach union with God and points out how entering the night is equivalent to carrying the cross. Finally in a fascinating way Edith speaks of how the heart or fountainhead of personal life, an inmost region, is present in both God and the soul and that in the spiritual marriage this inmost region is surrendered by each to the other. She observes that in the soul seized by God in contemplation all that is mortal is consumed in the fire of eternal love the spirit as spirit is destined for immortal being to move through fire along a path from the cross of christ to the glory of his resurrection the question often arises how it is with so much church going bible reading and prayer that the christian fails to live the life of complete victory over sin and lacks the love and joy of the lord one of the most important answers undoubtedly is that he does not know what it is to die to himself and to the world yet without this god s love and holiness cannot have their dwelling place in his heart he has repented of some sins but knows not what it is to turn not only from sin but from his old nature and self will yet this is what the lord jesus taught he said to the disciples that if any man would come after him he must hate and lose his own life he taught them to take up the cross that meant they were to consider their life as sinful and under sentence of death they must give up themselves their own will and power and any goodness of their own when their lord had died on the cross they would learn what it was to die to themselves and the world and to live their life in the fullness of god our lord used the apostle paul to put this still more clearly paul did not know christ after the flesh but through the holy spirit christ was revealed in his heart and he could testify i am crucified with christ i live no longer christ liveth in me in more than one of his epistles the truth is made clear that we are dead to sin with christ and receive and experience the power of the new life through the continual working of god s spirit in us each day as the season of lent approaches each year our thoughts will be occupied with the sufferings and death of our lord emphasis will be laid in the preaching on christ for us on the cross as the foundation of our salvation less is said about our death with christ the subject is a deep and difficult one yet every christian needs to consider it it is my earnest desire to help those christians who are considering this great truth that death to self and to the world is necessary for a life in the love and joy of christ in the secret of the cross andrew murray seeks to explain the chief words of our lord and of his disciples on this subject he offers these two points to the reader first take time to read over what you do not understand at once spiritual truth is not easy to grasp but experience has taught that god s words taken into the heart and meditated on with prayer help the soul by degrees to understand the truth and secondly be assured that only through the fallen cross stands as a symbol for the spiritual condition of the church of jesus christ in the early days of the twenty first century in many places and many churches the cross has fallen to the ground instead of boasting in the cross we have neglected it substituting in its place religious activity and therapeutic language designed to help us feel better about ourselves and yet when the story is truly told it must be said that christianity is supremely the religion of the cross at the center of our faith a dying man hangs suspended between heaven and earth pastor ray pritchard takes a fresh look at the cross and the god man on it and asks who is he why is he there what are the words he is speaking what did the cross
