doss's charming, touching and at times hilarious chronicle tells how each of the children representing white, chinese, japanese, filipino, korean, mexican and native american backgrounds came to her and her husband, carl, a methodist minister. She writes of the way the unwanted feeling was erased with devoted love and understanding and how the children united into one happy family. Her account reads like a novel with scenes of hard times and triumphs described in vivid prose the family nobody wanted which inspired two films opened doors for other adoptive families and was a popular favorite among parents young adults and children for more than thirty years now this edition will introduce the classic to a new generation of readers an epilogue by helen doss that updates the family s progress since 1954 will delight the book s loyal legion of fans around the world
