it s almost undeniable that god is working miracles of healing in evangelization today for theologians pastors and evangelists some questions arise what is the relationship between physical healing and the message of salvation should the church really expect god to do healings in evangelization today father thelen answers these questions by examining the relationship between the preaching of the gospel and physical healing in the new testament the gospel of jesus christ is not simply a message of fact it is a message of power that is often expressed through the working of deeds that serve as signs of the reality preached salvation as signs of the kingdom healings that accompany the preaching of the gospel play an indispensable role in bringing people to faith throughout the new testament the result of this biblical study is a clarion call for the church to renew its faith in god s desire and power to confirm his word through healing as healing becomes more accepted and frequent in evangelization a catholic biblical and theological approach to healing as it relates to evangelization an approach that can be different from its protestant counterpart is necessary this modest book fits this need in this book sunny kuan hui wang explores the relationship between sense perception and testimony in the gospel of john while johannine scholars tend to focus on one or the other she shows that sense perception and testimony are both significant and are used together with the intention of drawing readers into the narrative so that they become witnesses in an emotionally engaged way it is argued that john s use of sense perception together with testimony is rooted in jewish literature yet john also employs a graeco roman rhetorical technique enargeia which appeals to the persuasive power of sense perception to make his narrative vivid john does not downplay sense perception rather he uses it in the context of testimony as a means of persuasion to draw the readers in their imagination into the experience of the first disciples and thus deeper into faith and witness research on following jesus has mostly been done in terms of what jesus followers ought to do in this unprecedented study kim presents following jesus in john s gospel through the perspective of what jesus does for his followers following jesus is a journey towards the place where jesus leads his followers that is to a relationship with the father it is ultimately participating in the son s communion with the father jesus who was in the bosom of the father descended from him and ascends to him taking his followers with him so that they may be with him where he is with the father in glory and love kim develops this thesis by examining the term akolouthēin to follow and correlated motifs in john s gospel
