psalms of a kept woman is a memoir that provides insight into the answer of the question what does it mean to be a woman kept by god in this raw and unfiltered view into the often messy journey of growth from girl to woman and ultimately woman of god the author is vivid and vulnerable in her illustrative offering of some of the most difficult times of her life yet in the end she is able to effectively express and validate that god's hand and purpose always prevails in the life of those who are willing to be kept by him the author takes it a step further by combining her personal memoir with a womanhood workbook just as the sand is necessary to agitate the clam in order to bring forth the pearl she uses her testimony in order to present those hard wrought nuggets of wisdom as gift and treasure to her reader through the womanhood workbook she takes you by the hand and walks with you through your own process into godly womanhood proving as the motto of her non profit kept women states it is possible we do exist and we multiply kept in lifestyles of luxury by the men who pursue their beauty and sexual prowess women who make themselves available for sex in this self destructive profession can suffer seriously through hundreds of interviews mcrae has uncovered the vulnerability of these women and what becomes of children born into such lives in the dramatic and tragic years of world war ii the hungarian poet lajos walder was probably looking for a broader expression of his philosophical beliefs than poetry seemed to allow following huxley aragon and celine he turned to prose drawing on his education in greek and his love of theatre he penned plays with insights so pertinent that they seem universally valid some six and a half decades later lajos walder 1913 1945 was a well known poet in 1930s budapest but his plays written in the early 1940s were not known until 1990 when they were first published in hungarian and described by a major critic as uniquely beautiful creations of an original mind lajos walder died on 7 may 1945 the day of liberation and just four hours after walking out of the death camp of gunskirchen he was not yet 32 years of age these plays should be staged in the meantime they may be read in agnes walder s fine translations which evoke the essence and mood of her father s time and capture his expressive literary style diana s combination of beauty and class has bagged her marriage to publishing mogul ernie foxton and with that comes a stunning new york apartment a designer wardrobe and a manicurist hairdresser and masseuse on tap with little more to do with her days than shopping and socialising this is the life for which she was born but then without warning the bottom drops out of diana s meticulously constructed world and she finds herself without a home or a husband and with barely a dime to her name for the first time in her life she might just have to look after herself but given how many people would love to see her fail it s not going to be a walk in the park
