how do we take stock of the state and direction of the world's environment and what can we learn from the experience among the myriad detailed narratives about the condition of the planet the global environment outlook geo reports issued by the United Nations Environment Programme stand out as the most ambitious for nearly three decades the Geo Project has not only delivered iconic global assessment reports but through its multitude of contributors has inspired hundreds of similar processes worldwide from the regional to the local level this book provides an inside account of the evolution of the geo project from its earliest days building on meticulous research including interviews with former heads of the united nations environment programme diplomats leading contributing scientists and senior leaders of collaborating organizations the story is told from the perspective of five geo veterans who all played a pivotal role in shaping the periodic assessments the geo s history provides striking insights and will save valuable time to those who commission design and conduct as well as critique and improve assessments of environmental development in the next decade environmental impact assessment eia has become a vital management tool worldwide eia is a means of evaluating the likely consequences of a proposed major action which will significantly affect the environment before that action is taken this new edition of wood s key text provides an authoritative international review of environmental impact assessment comparing systems used in the uk usa the netherlands canada the commonwealth of australia and new zealand and south africa gould american history u of texas austin has dusted off updated and thinned his 1988 lady bird johnson and the environment to kick off the new series on the wives of us presidents he draws on johnson s white house papers and interviews with her and her close associates to argue that she was one of the most politically active first ladies though her concern with the environment was overshadowed by protests against the vietnam war annotation copyrighted by book news inc portland or
