it was our intent to write a travelogue of an around the world car race the first of its kind in more than one hundred years we began by interviewing jc wilkerson ceo of world rallies inc and kyle vanderhorn the official race reporter then thurman alston one of the racers approached us with an outrageous list of accusations presenting a very different story from the sanitized official version thurman wanted to make these allegations public the accusations were primarily aimed at ed talbot the driver of car 23 a controversial alternative energy automobile which it appears has now been destroyed the allegations were as follows first that ed leaked information to the cia about the radical nature of the car s technology leading to the intervention of the u s and russian governments and indirectly to the murders in siberia second that ed s irresponsible actions during the race were the reasons that the environmentallyfriendly technology in his entry has not been made available to the world and that he is to blame for some of the climatic change that will take place in the future third that ed was lying about the innovation in the car it was actually nothing new and was in fact fully developed in nazi germany during world war ii and then held off the market by oil interests finally that his secret liaison with his navigator showed a reckless disregard for his wife and young daughter and affected his judgment while these accusations appeared to be absurd we knew we had to sort out thurman s wild claims before we could write an objective report of the around the world race we discovered that there was some truth among these charges a story hidden within a story we became intrigued with our findings it turned out that the race was a minor part of the challenges ed faced our research had turned up a convoluted love story that alone would have made it difficult for ed to have followed a different course of action you can decide for yourself whether a less disastrous outcome would have been possible if he had made different decisions ed and janet howle thelongroadtoparis.com

joe is your average guy who has led an average life or quite possibly there could be more much more but he would never tell anyone that he possesses the talents of being in the right place at the right time or does he he s not afraid to speak his mind no matter the place and the time joe is one of those magical guys who came from an era when the world was vastly less complex and complicated and while the rest of the world evolved in their way he evolved too but not in the same direction he was born his own person grew up his own person and lived his life on his terms the people who engage in his life are as special as he is through the crossroads and intersections of their lives everyone comes to the realization that it is indeed a long road to hero one day while sitting on a park bench mark was asked by an old man why do you do what you do why do you work where you work or live where you live whether we agree or not life really is about a series of paths and decisions whereby even one small change can alter our lives forever we usually want to blame others including god for our decisions only by examining the paths we have taken can we really see where we re at it is only when we look deep within ourselves we discover that as writers singers musicians interior decorators or even truck drivers we all have gifts having them is not to question rather it is what we do with them that really matters wherever your passions lie you can erase your doubts and restore your joy just imagine yourself on a park bench
