the messiah texts traces the progress of the messianic legend from its biblical beginnings to contemporary expressions the book deals with the field of decanonization of ancient traditions by the technique of deconstructing their original context in particular the process of canonization of the greek torah in jewish hellenistic and christian tradition and its decanonization in rabbinic literature the use and abuse of the translation s of aquila in patristic and rabbinic literature and the substitution of aquila by onkelos in babylonian academies the decanonization of the book of ben sira in rabbinic literature on the basis of his analysis the author concludes that if a canon is the ability of a text to produce and authorize commentary deconstructing its original context by generalization de canonization is the inverse way of contextualizing a canonical text by reconstructing the supposed original context legends of the jews is a most remarkable and comprehensive compilation of stories connected to the hebrew bible it is an indispensable reference on that body of literature known as midrash the imaginative retelling and elaboration on bible stories in which mythological tales about demons and magic co exist with moralistic stories about the piety of the patriarchs christianity today 2008 book award biblical studies even mature christians have trouble defending the person and divinity of christ the jesus legend builds a convincing interdisciplinary case for the unique and plausible position of jesus in human history he was real and his presence on the planet has been well documented the authors of the new testament didn t plant evidence though each writer did tell the truth from a unique perspective this book carefully investigates the gospel portraits of jesus particularly the synoptic gospels assessing what is reliable history and fictional legend the authors contend that a cumulative case for the general reliability of the synoptic gospels can be made and boldly challenge those who question the veracity of the jesus found there examines four early christian anti jewish writings applying new methods of the historical critical school the four 2nd century texts are by barnabas epistle of barnabas justin martyr dialogue with trypho melito of sardis paschal homily and tertullian answer to the jews states that these texts along with the new testament were theological and not historical works deplores the fact that they are still used by modern christians to propagate prejudice or create false impressions about jews and judaism
