for centuries islam as a universal religion was among the world's greatest enlightened and most creative cultural forces as well as a powerful and splendid civilisation in his thoughtful and comprehensive book David Haveric explores the rise and further development of the islamic civilisation using a multidisciplinary approach especially historical and historiographical the author includes a wide range of sources with his focal point on islamic civilisation this cultural history surveys the magnificent discoveries and achievements of the muslims from the 7th to the 15th centuries the book demonstrates that the muslim discoveries of various parts of the globe particularly during the golden age of islamic civilisation played an important part in history by exploring islamic civilisation within the plurality of civilisations this work puts forward a very distinct point of view the author presents a balanced look at the cultural religious diversity and interaction of civilisations it outlines the interaction of islamic civilisation with various ancient civilisations and other civilisations that also emerged or flourished in his observations the author illuminates the islamic contribution to world history and also it includes many values and the riches of different civilisations beliefs and cultures of the world this work is a treasure of fascinating facts and a source of important information it is also a blend of scholarship and dedication and a timely contribution to islamic cultural history comparative civilisations multi faith relations and cosmopolitanism full of rare and exact information a distinguished work new york review of books the eleventh century muslim world was a great civilization while europe lay slumbering in the dark ages slowly inevitably europe and islam came together through trade and war crusade and diplomacy the ebb and flow between these two worlds for seven hundred years illuminated here by a brilliant historian is one of the great sagas of world history some so called authorities claim that muslims came to america hundreds of years before columbus arrived in the new world are the claims true columbus expedition represents the first major discovery of the americas and the first appearance of non native americans the conventional wisdom is that columbus ended tens of thousands of years of near total isolation for the native americans since the americas had been initially populated probably between 13 000 bc and 11 000 bc there had been no engagement with peoples from any other continent save small ventures by the norse into northeastern canada did muslims come to the americas possibly as early as the 700s these researchers argue that muslims came from islamic spain particularly the port of delba pelos during the rule of caliph abdullah ibn mohammed 888 912 a muslim historian abul hassan al masudi c 895 957 added a map of the world to his book one that contained a large area in the ocean of darkness and fog the atlantic ocean which he referred to as the unknown territory the americas this book demonstrates that this assertion is important for muslims because in conjunction with the relevant verses from the koran and quotes from mohammed it establishes the claim of muslims that allah intended america to be islamic the book also investigates the lives of selected muslims in america and organizations from the eighteenth century into the twenty first century it reveals that there was nothing more than a continuation of typical islamic deception and subversive jihad it also documents the lie of the islamic claim that hundreds of place names in the united states of america and canada derive from arabic islamic roots finally the book exposes the rewriting of american history by islamic and pro islamic media this book is alarming informative interesting and true bernard lewis s work has covered all periods and most countries of the islamic middle east this festschrift written by some of his numerous colleagues friends and former students includes some of the most distinguished orientalist historians and social scientists of our time and is a fitting tribute to professor lewis s scholarship the contributions range geographically from on chinese rhubarb to the jewish courtier class in late eighteenth century morocco and topically from the concept of authority in islamic thought to a forgotten ottoman romance and safety in numbers reflections on the middle eastern balance of power taken together the fifty two essays constitute a variegated collection of studies on a many sided and important civilisation the collections are assembled under three major headings the classical and medieval islamic world ottoman studies and the modern middle east this multidisciplinary volume aims to shed new light on the variety of european uses of a political buzzword solidarity growing out of the historically complex roots of religion politics and knowledge solidarity has developed a number of meanings that are all but straightforward is solidarity what holds the group from inside or is it what the group displays towards those whom it represents is it a political project or a social condition and is it a matter of faith or a rational option in a secular world the passage of the concept into the discourse of the emerging global movements as well as its adoption by official post national discourses has mirrored and magnified these uneasy questions in particular at the european level the answers to these questions have taken so different forms that it is tempting to see in them the expression of multiple solidarities rather than of one common as it were solidarity setting as their common aim to shed more light on the ambivalent aspects of european solidarity the chapters of this book are written by a number of renowned scholars including claus offe peter wagner and william outhwaite on the life and achievements of jamāl ad dīn al afghānī 1838 1897 iranian reformer contributed articles collected in this volume are articles written over a span of two decades dealing with islam and other faiths and christianity and judaism in particular they cover a wide spectrum of inter religious issues including commonality and differences as well as the issue of mission and da wah
