can you understand algebra if you have never learned basic addition can you write a book if you have never constructed a simple sentence in order to understand complex things we must go back to the beginning and learn the basics the same principle can be applied to our understanding of biblical truths when looking at the complex issue of women s ordination it is important to examine the beginning of god s word pastor jan voerman s analysis of the genesis account of creation and the fall of adam and eve more than strengthens an unpopular argument for the restoration of the traditional roles of men and women in society in addition to studying the old and new testaments in regards to this topic pastor voerman also draws from the writings of the early church fathers and ellen g white the ordination of women the priesthood of all believers and other aspects presents a surprisingly refreshing outlook on a complex subject that encourages readers to return to their biblical roots as people of the book trumpets were extremely important in the lives of the people of ancient israel through the use of trumpets god spoke to them guided them warned them and directed them it was the duty of the priests to sound the trumpets at the appropriate times but sometimes god himself spoke to them directly such as at mt sinai when in awful and terrifying grandeur the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder as the mighty god of heaven descended in fire and the mountain trembled violently this spectacular demonstration was to prepare the hearts of the people to receive with reverence and awe the pronouncement of his holy ten commandment law ex 19 16 20 21 in fact trumpets were often connected with the law and the ark of the covenant which contained it priests blowing trumpets were to precede and accompany the ark whenever it was transported an example of this is found in joshua 6 1 20 where 7 priests blowing 7 trumpets marched before the ark around the city of jericho for 7 days and on the seventh day they blew the trumpets 7 times and as the people shouted the walls of the city collapsed is the god of heaven any less zealous for his sacred law today than he was in ancient times could it be that even now in our day he is allowing trumpets to blow to warn of the impending collapse of the cities of the nations which are so filled with crime and corruption will he not rise from his throne and oversee the final dispensation of justice upon a world which is careening toward self destruction read the pages of this book and discover the meaning of the extraordinary events that have been happening since the turn of the century and find the way into the safety of god s pavilion paul knew what it meant to die to self and live for christ after meeting god on the road to damascus in his blindness saul who became paul grew to know jesus and determined to live for him he went on to write in romans 5 1 2 that having been justified by faith we have peace with god through our lord jesus christ through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand and rejoice in hope of the glory of god the hope of glory to know jesus and live through him features the writings of ellen g white on a variety of topics that center around the theme of knowing jesus and living life for him after accepting jesus as our personal savior it should be our mission in life to deepen our relationship with jesus this book seeks to aid in that process and prepare readers to deliver the final message of mercy to the world before the second coming of christ for nearly 150 years the review and herald has been the official church paper of the seventh day adventist people a paper the present truth was first printed in august 1849 in 1851 the name was changed to second advent review and sabbath herald over the decades the church paper has carried a number of names and as of 2012 it is simply adventist review our church paper actually preceded by fourteen years the official organization of the seventh day adventist church in 1863 from its inception throughout her life the messenger of the lord ellen g white used the review and herald as one of the main avenues of communicating god s counsels to his remnant people during that sixty six year span nearly 2 000 messages by god of direction reproof and inspiration were published in the review and herald this present edition has all of her articles published through 1915 unabridged in four volumes ellen g white passed away friday july 16 1915 upon hearing of her death arthur w spalding penned the following lines that appeared in the advent review and sabbath herald of july 29 1915 and israel mourned upon the sweet sabbatic calm the evil tidings swept and hushing every joyful psalm an orphaned people wept alas that human lips must tell the somber message dread o israel o israel thy godly seer is dead long long the tale of freighted years that marked the judge s seat from shiloh s mingled hopes and fears to ramah s counsel sweet the chorus of their graces swell the lamentation sore o israel o israel thy prophet speaks no more what hand hath not that guidance felt or sore pressed heart that touch when wayward life its impulse dealt and sorrow overmuch what tender memories compel that saddened low refrain o israel o israel thy messenger is slain but hush thou jacob feeble faint beset by traitor foe take thee a pean for thy plaint a kingdom for thy blow with seer and prophet all is well loud let the heavens ring o israel o israel prepare to meet thy king in an editorial of the same review and herald issue the editor francis m wilcox stressed the point that though dead the messenger of the lord still speaks through her published works set as a teacher in israel she was true to the trust imposed upon her with unswerving fidelity she bore her testimony as the spirit of god directed her utterance in reproof in exhortation in encouragement as a special watchman upon zion s walls as the messenger of god she never faltered in bearing the burden which this ministry imposed how often during her long ministry has she stood in the breach to call israel back to their allegiance to god how often has she rebuked sin in high places in the church she has not betrayed her trust but has proved loyal to the position appointed her of the great influence exerted by her words spoken and written we need not speak the judgment will reveal we believe a wonderful fruitage of the labors of this devout servant though dead she still speaks her works follow her they still live to bless the church her stirring appeals her exhortations her instructions in the divine life are still left us to these we can still seek for the help which personally she is powerless to give we shall miss our beloved sister but we trust that we shall treasure even more carefully the instruction that she has given us if we shall do this if we shall turn to the lord with all our hearts
