the holy qur an is the sacred book of islam it is the word of allah the god whose truth was revealed to the prophet muhammad through the angel gabriel over a period of 23 years as it was revealed so it was committed to memory by his companions though written copies were also made by literate believers during the lifetime of the prophet the first full compilation was by abu bakar the first caliph and it was then recompiled in the original dialect by the third caliph uthman after the best reciters had fallen in battle even though the holy qur an was revealed to the prophet muhammad sequentially over 23 years time it was not compiled in chronological order when the holy qur an was finally compiled into book form under caliph uthman the suras chapters were ordered from longest to shortest with no connection whatever to the order in which they were revealed or to their thematic content as the result those who have just started to pick up the holy qur an may find it difficult to understand often in order to find out what the holy qur an says on a given topic it is necessary to examine the other islamic sources that give clues as to when in the prophet muhammad s lifetime the revelations occurred this book presents the suras chronologically in a time sequence accepted by scholars at one of the world s chief centre of islamic learning al azhar in cairo in english muslims believe that the truths of the holy qur an are fully and authentically revealed only in the original classical arabic however as the influence of islam grows and spreads to the modern world it is recognised that translation is an important element in introducing and explaining islam to wider audience this translation by abdullah yusuf ali is considered to be the most faithful rendering available in english
