this book scrutinizes the frequently ignored agency of global south sub national actors in their interactions with china using a multidisciplinary approach and eleven case studies contributors examine china s presence in the global south on a country by country basis analyzing how various non state and sub state actors are responding to the rise of china and whether they are attracted by the cooperation models that china proposes or deterred by its new assertiveness contributions cover diverse and heterogeneous geographies of the global south ranging from papua new guinea to argentina and from madagascar to the russian far east examining such diverse cases contributors focus on two interrelated questions what is the actual economic political and social impact of china s growing presence in the global south and critically how do the citizens of the global south understand and interpret china s rise taken together the case studies develop a comprehensive picture of a complex and sometimes problematic process of china s inclusion into the economic social and political realities of the global south this book identifies and fills the gaps in the existing literature on china s rise by offering a nuanced perspective on china s relations with the countries of the global south that captures such variables as social context intersubjective meanings and identities by focusing china s relations with the global south it also provides an important addition to the literature on international politics of development and china s role in the transformation of the south south cooperation
