after his breakthrough with ziggy stardust and before his u.s. pop hits fame and golden years david bowie produced a dark and difficult concept album set in a post-apocalyptic hunger city populated by post-human mutants diamond dogs includes the great glam anthem rebel rebel and utterly unique songs that combine lush romantic piano and nearly operatic singing with scratching grungy guitars creepy insidious noises and dark pessimistic lyrics that reflect the album's origins in a projected Broadway musical version of Orwell's 1984 and Bowie's formative encounter with William S. Burroughs in this book Glenn Hendler shows that each song on diamond dogs shifts the ground under you as you listen not just by changing in musical style but by being sung by a different i who directly addresses a different you diamond dogs is the product of a performer at the peak of his powers but uncomfortable with the rock star role he had constructed all of the album's influences looked to Bowie like ways of escaping not just the ziggy role but also the constraints of race gender sexuality and nationality these are just some of the reasons many bowie fans rate diamond dogs his richest and most important album of the 1970s
