who we most deeply are is mirrored in our artistic work our need for mirroring simultaneously attracts us to and repels us from our creative callings and relationships it is one of life's great dilemmas artist's block and lover's block flow from the same pool often we fear deeply the very thing needed to create original art to experience intimate relationships and to live authentic lives we are frightened by the impulse to be fully revealed to ourselves and to others as this most often entails exposing the unacceptable shadowy aspects of our humanity and risking rejection mirrors in all their manifold guises permit us to safely see and experience ourselves in reflection and become better acquainted with the rejected ostracized aspects of our personalities creative work is one of the few places where we can truly express and witness lost aspects of our authentic selves within us a treasure beckons this is what we spend our lives pursuing what slows and distracts us is not the object we long for but where we search to find this precious gem we must eventually return to our own creative spirits there is no single definition of creativity it is as wide ranging as the people who seek it writers painters musicians actors indeed anyone who desires a richer more rewarding life many consider it inaccessible limited to gifted artists and celebrities but as the extraordinary contributors to this book show it is really everyone's birthright too often shoved to the recesses of our psyches by the demands of everyday life from the vibrant naturalist and poet diane ackerman to musical theorist don campbell to inspirational author sark these talented contributors guide us through the creative process with clarity and insight they remind us that inspiration is always available to those willing to realize the power and possibility of their true creative being contributors include diane ackerman pat b allen christina baldwin hal zina bennett echo bodine jean shinoda bolen don campbell lucia capacchione michelle cassou judith cornell adriana díaz riane eisler linda firestone john fox robert fritz aviva gold robert grudin jean liedloff ann linnea shaun mcniiff eric maisel jill mellick stephen nachmanovitch kent nerburn jan phillips sark

the spirit of creativity embodying your soul's passion is a timely book that addresses our growing need to live the creative life it reminds us that creativity is the energy of our life force and exists within every aspect of our lives creativity is not something you learn it is something you are through the author's background and practice as an art psychotherapist and hypnotherapist karen invites you to tap into and unleash your own unique forms of creativity and evolve beyond the stereotypical belief that being creative is reserved only for the artistic elite as a way to ingest the empowering teachings of this book you'll be guided through varying experiential exercises including journal writing art making visualization meditation and self hypnosis all techniques to begin experiencing the flow of creative energy within your life you too can lead the creative life and have amazing events unfold of your own volition all you have to do is remember reclaim and embody your creative passion in tangible ways this book shows you how to do exactly that we are all on our own spiritual journeys no one person's path is identical to another's yet we all have much in common we all succumb to fear at times we all struggle with accepting reality as it is and ourselves as we are and we all strive to increase our abilities to center our lives and our choices from a place of love daylight for the soul is meant for anyone who wants guidance on the path of peace and love with fifty two meditations on such topics as attachment courage and compassion this book provides counsel in spiritual growth and helps you find inner peace author beth freeman has spent three years gathering and meditating on these teachings from the spiritual masters and their insights inspire us as we reflect on our own lives and the ways we can more fully embrace love over fear i have a faith in language said the poet w s merwin it's the ultimate achievement that we as a species have evolved so far language is a deep ocean of living words as varied as undersea life it is a gift inherited by each person when he or she is born it can be corrupted and regulated but it cannot be owned it is an enormous complex inexhaustible gift the soul of creative writing is a tribute to language and to its potentials it explores the elements of language style rhythm sound and the choice of the right word richard goodman paints an image of how language can produce a life and meaning that otherwise cannot exist in the symbols themselves goodman's stunningly creative collection was written after a lifetime of working and struggling with language he collects rich examples from writers of the past and present both great and small and uses them to illustrate how each element of our written language can be used the book begins with an analysis of words and how they can be used to create music on the page goodman uncovers the strength of words writing about the shades of meaning that make the search for the exact word both arduous and immensely rewarding he discusses how to find the proper title and how to find a fitting subject he shows how to create nonfiction work that is vivid and memorable through the use of the same techniques fiction writers employ goodman's volume is written with humor and clarity with fascination and reverence writers will find it an indispensable source of creative inspiration and instruction in goodman's words reading is a tour of a writer's efforts at manipulating language to create art to create flesh and blood and mountains cities homes and gardens out of inky symbols on the page to literary critics this book will be a guide to understanding the tools and devices of great writing in this thoughtful and revelatory book wood explores enduring and powerful theories on art creativity and what jung called the creative spirit in order to illuminate how artists can truly understand what it means to be a creator by bringing together insights on creativity from some of depth psychology's most iconic thinkers such as c g jung james hillman and joseph campbell as well as featuring a selection of creators who have been influenced by these ideas such as martha graham mary oliver stanley kunitz and ursula k le guin this book explores archetypal thought and the role of the artist in society this unique approach emphasizes the foundational need to understand and work with the unconscious forces that underpin a creative calling deepening our understanding of the transformational power of creativity and the vital role of the artist in the modern world acting as a touchstone for inquiries into the nature of creativity and of the soul this enlightening book is perfect for artists and creators of all types as well as jungian analysts and therapists and academics interested in the arts humanities and depth psychology
