writing can be fun and here's the book to prove it. Hemingway, Dostoevsky, Shakespeare—all of them wrote masterpieces when they were adults, but imagine what they could have written when they were kids. If only they had had this book. Be a Writing Superstar is an irreverent, encouraging writing guide for young readers which covers a whole spectrum of topics. It succeeds in teaching them the nuts and bolts of the entire writing process, from brainstorming their early ideas and shaping them on paper right through to hosting their own book launch. Yes, kids will be trading witty repartee and bon mots with their fellow scribes as they get their literary game on, and for when the dreaded writer's block kicks in, kids can draw inspiration from their writing heroes by reading some short interviews with famous Canadian authors and illustrators. Some of Canada's finest, including Robert Munsch, Melanie Watt, Gordon Korman, and Kenneth Oppel, agreed to answer 5 silly questions about their writing, and all of them are included in this book. A hilarious reminder that writers are funny people and writing is, above all else, fun.

There's a huge world for students in grades PK-K to explore, and all around the neighborhood provides the perfect place for them to start. Teachers use the reproducible building fronts and vehicles to create a familiar neighborhood setting, then let students' imaginations do the rest. Students add buildings from their own homes to fire stations to construction sites. This 176-page book teaches social awareness in conjunction with a variety of concepts and vocabulary words that draw upon students' interests. It includes 10 mini-books, 7 file folder games, more than 60 reproducible patterns, more than 80 literature links, and a wealth of cross-curricular activities that reinforce each new concept. The book supports NCSS and NAEYC standards.

Knowing Noah is the story of the adventures of a young farm mouse who, through extraordinary circumstances, found that he could read and understand humans when they spoke. Because of this wonderful capability, Noah not only finds himself in the midst of some very terrifying adventures but also finds that his fellow mice at school or at play cannot seem to accept him as he is, even though he is bullied and pushed about. Noah has a spirit and a capacity for seeing and doing the right thing. He befriends the dreaded barn cat, Snoad, and together they make a great team, much to the dismay of everyone else. Noah meets many characters in his travels about the farm: Mrs. Yahooody, the lady hedgehog who helps save Noah from the jaws of a hungry fox; Madame Topal, she of the beady eye; and the rigid, stern schoolroom for young mice who cannot understand Noah and his imaginative ways. These and many other characters make up a supporting cast for Noah as he grows and learns the ways of his world. A book about being different and using the gifts that nature gives to triumph over all obstacles.
