baba rexheb a muslim mystic from the balkans founded the first bektashi community in america this is his life story and the story of his communities the traditional bektashi tekke in albania where he first served the displaced persons camps to which he escaped after the war the centuries old tekke in cairo where he waited and the bektashi community that he founded in michigan in 1954 and led until his passing in 1995 baba rexheb lived through the twentieth century its wars disruptions and dislocations but still at a profound level was never displaced through bektashi stories oral histories and ethnographic experience frances trix recounts the life and times of this modern sufi leader she studied with baba rexheb in his community for more than twenty years as a linguistic anthropologist she taped twelve years of their weekly meetings in turkish albanian and arabic she draws extensively on baba s own words as well as interactions at the michigan bektashi center for a remarkable perspective on our times you come to know baba rexheb and his gentle way of teaching through example and parable poetry and humor the book also documents the history of the 700 year old bektashi order in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in the balkans and egypt and its transposition to america it attests to the role of sufi centers in islamic community life and their interaction with people of other faiths the bektashi way is profoundly simple yet perplexingly complex striking in its boldness yet gracious in its subtlety consequently while shining forth brightly it still is seemingly cloaked in obscurity there have been attempts to gather its history characteristic ideas and observable aspects together and to elucidate its inner wisdom in prose but few of these attempts have been made by knowledgeable insiders and even fewer of these have been made in english this full translation of baba rexheb s islamic mysticism and the bektashi path from its original albanian is thus a unique addition to the literature on bektashism in english and a boon to those who seek to know more about this clearly enigmatic way vafi baba the bektashi dervish order is a sufi alevite sect found in anatolia and the balkans with a strong presence in albania in this his final book robert elsie analyses the albanian bektashi and considers their role in the country s history and society although much has been written on the bektashi in turkey little has appeared on the albanian branch of the sect robert elsie considers the history and culture of the bektashi analyses writings on the order by early travellers to the region such as margaret hasluck and sir arthur evans and provides a comprehensive list of tekkes convents and tyrbes shrines in albania and neighbouring countries finally he presents a catalogue of notable albanian bektashi figures in history and legend this book provides a complete reference guide to the bektashi in albania which will be essential reading for scholars of the balkans islamic sects and albanian history and culture love in the time of ethnography explores love variously defined as an important facet of human life and a worthy focus of study the authors look at love in association with an alevi and sunni couple in turkey organizers of mexican american and immigrant youth movements christian missionaries in china an elderly man with dementia two women coming home to queer identity a white researcher working with black women in the us the common ground between dogen s zen teachings and habermas s critical theory an albanian sufi community in michigan and interactions between humans and the natural world it also includes theoretical writing on the place of love in social analysis whether this involves relationships between researchers and participants or the nature of human connection itself the authors argue that social research is an affective process as well as a cognitive one and that fellow feeling is an essential component of making sense of the world along with more traditional scholarly forms the contributors to this book use auto ethnography life stories archival research and poetry noting that style itself conveys information and emotion writing is always to some extent partisan while anthropologists and other social researchers have explored this idea over the last few decades they have more often explored it with an eye to critique than to the ideals underlying that critique this is a collection of essays about what ethnographers are aiming for as well as the problems they address and the authors discuss ethical principles like agape hizmet and cariño as rationales for ethnography and rationales for social change muslim voices and lives in the contemporary world tells the stories of eleven remarkable people in the islamic world with each account written by an american scholar who came to know that person well from a religious musician in pakistan who sings the sufferings of the saints and hopes to bring reconciliation to his country to a visual artist from a traditional family in egypt who wants her work to speak to the whole world to the son of one of the greatest shi ite scholars of iraq who was murdered trying to restore peace in his city to an afghan aid agency manager who works to help her people in unstable times these stories counter some of the misconceptions of muslim women and men that exist in the western world these lively and memorable accounts are distinguished by their immediacy depth variety and breadth and are sure to resonate this book offers a kaleidoscopic portrait of the past present and future of albania prifti examines the lives of prominent albanians and considers the nation s politics economics and the current situation in kosovo he also discusses the nation s traditional and contemporary literature far from ottoman turkey and the balkans an expanded farmhouse in southern michigan provides the secure if improbable setting for baba rexheb and his islamic bektashi community this is also the setting for spiritual discourse a study of the process by which baba rexheb a ninety year old albanian leader of the bektashi order and frances trix an american student who has studied with him for over twenty years come to share a common universe of experience and attunement the focus of the study is one lesson with baba a lesson that is rich in poetry and parable narrative and face saving humor as trix seeks to understand how baba teaches she contextualizes the lesson internally in terms of episodes and dialogic patterns and externally in terms of the societal personal and ritual histories it presumes overall what is being passed on is not facts but a relationship for the relationship of seeker and master mirrors that of human and god yet on a more immediate level baba teaches through a highly personalized recursive sort of language play that engenders current attention while constantly evoking an ever growing shared past for scholars of discourse and interaction the study contributes the central concept of language attunement a form of linguistic convergence that operates not at the level of speech community but rather at the level of dialogic encounter and that occurs most often among people who have long interacted for scholars of islam and religious studies the study represents a rare application of sociolinguistics to transmission of spiritual knowledge the importance of oral interaction in such transmission has long been appreciated but the conceptual framework and methodology for its analysis have been lacking an ethnography of learning a sociolinguistics of mysticism above all spiritual discourse illuminates the process of interpersonal encounter it is a story gracefully and unpretentiously told the recent influx of albanian migrants into michigan is a result of both the nationalist upheavals in the balkan region as well as the breadth of opportunities that michigan affords the diversity of michigan s people is reflected in the albanian community itself as christians and muslims strive to maintain religious ethnic and linguistic identities in their new communities frances trix explores the ways in which michigan s albanian community has forged an unusual cohesiveness and unity and thus has remained more traditional in its orientation than have large immigrant albanian communities in other parts of the united states these characteristics make the albanian experience in michigan unique dedicated to all those albanians whose lives have been disrupted by violence and human rights abuses this bibliographic guide attests to many unique cultural and other facets of this beleaguered balkan nation beyond its contemporary political and economic woes individuals of note geology archeology prehistory flora and
