the tao of philosophy is a literary adaptation of talks selected to introduce the new love of wisdom series by alan watts to today's audiences the following chapters provide rich examples of the way in which the philosophy of the tao is as contemporary today as it was when it flourished in china thousands of years ago perhaps most significantly these selections offer modern society a clearer understanding of what it will take for a successful reintegration of humans in nature personal practice of liberation from the limitations imposed by the common beliefs within our culture the philosophy of the tao offers a way to understand the value of ourselves as free willed individuals enfolded within the ever changing patterns of nature the path of the tao is perhaps the most puzzling way of liberation to come to us from the far east in the last century it is both practical and esoteric and it has a surprisingly comfortable quality of thought that is often overlooked by western readers who never venture beyond the unfamiliar quality of the word tao pronounced dow but those who do soon discover a way of understanding and living with the world that has profound implications for us today in so called modern societies the word tao means the way in the sense of a path a way to go but it also means nature in the sense of one's true nature and the nature of the universe often described as the philosophy of nature we find the origins of taoism in the shamanic world of pre dynastic china living close to the earth one sees the wisdom of not interfering and letting things go their way it is the wisdom of swimming with the current splitting wood along the grain and seeking to understand human nature instead of changing it every creature finds its way according to the laws of nature and each of us has our own inner path or tao
