read the holy bible like a novel not like a textbook this version of the holy bible capitalizes on a new presentation style that has become more popular over the last few years and one that is closer to the original version than most current ones we ve dispensed with chapter and verse numbers they weren t added until the 1200s and 1500s respectively and we ve put books that were split apart because they wouldn t fit on a single scroll e g ezra and nehemiah back into single books we ve also rearranged some of the books so they follow a more logical timeline and progression we keep books with the same audience or author or same theme or timeline together this makes it more cohesive for you to read we ve used the world english bible a readable translation that allows you to traverse the whole of god s word in thoroughly modern language we hope you enjoy reading this new version of the holy bible and may yahweh bless you this book is the first detailed analysis of an exquisitely illuminated thirteenth century parisian manuscript the royal library copenhagen which was owned by christina of norway 1234 1262 daughter of hkon iv and wife of philip of castile and leon new information is provided about the psalter s medieval and later components its liturgical and other functions missing illuminations and texts as well as its provenance and date furthermore the stylistic and iconographic similarities between the psalter and some of the most important manuscripts illuminated in paris in the period like the three volume moralized bibles are discussed suggestions also are made about the meanings the texts and images might have had for their intended audience ancient cultures such as that of the hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years in a biblical theology of gerassapience the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic semantic tradition historical and socio anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra biblical texts there are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient israel s life that is in pre monarchical monarchical and post monarchical israel throughout this study appropriate cross cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient israel s neighbors and of modern societies such as the west african yoruba tribe the overall results are bi dimensional on the one hand there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions thus the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the hebrew bible old testament on the other hand gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly fostering the saging fear of yahweh legacies on the whole socio anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience yahwistic wisdom therefore in the hebrew bible the fear of yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise
