when mathias a travelling watch salesman returns after many years to the island of his birth a young girl is found dead on the rocks as mathias makes an increasingly tense recapitulation of his movements on the day of the event tiny details slowly and inexorably accumulate through the warped screen of his distorted mind the remembered images pile up until the reader is caught in his web of desperation and yet in the end reality has lost all meaning as the distinction between the narrator s recollections and the underlying facts are more and more blurred this brilliantly executed novel which showcases all the techniques that have secured robbe grillet s place in the canon of western literature leaves behind a disturbing sense of unrest mathias a timorous ineffectual traveling salesman returns to the island of his birth after a long absence two days later a thirteen year old girl is found drowned and mutilated with eerie precision robbe grillet puts us at the scene of the crime and takes us inside mathias s mind artfully enlisting us as detective hot on the trail of a homicidal maniac a triumphant display of the techniques of the new novel the voyeur achieves the impossible feat of keeping us utterly engrossed in the mystery of the child s murder while systematically raising doubts about whether it really occurred the postmodernist novel is renowned for the extremes of its narcissistic involvement with language but in this book the author argues that this self consciousness has been a characteristic of the novel since its earliest stirrings telling a story requires selecting and assembling individual elements of the events one wishes to communicate the nonnarrated are the events or parts of events that were deliberately left out of the selection meaning all that was not chosen to be told in the story or chosen not to be told since the realm of the nonnarrated in any given story is infinitely large studying the nonnarrated requires focusing on that which is not told but nevertheless belongs to a story this monograph explores the phenomenon of the nonnarrated in narrative short forms from cechov to murakami and in novels by dostoevskij and robbe grillet
