the seventh volume in knopf's critically acclaimed complete lyrics series published in johnny mercer's centennial year contains the texts to more than 1 200 of his lyrics several hundred of them published here for the first time johnny mercer's early songs became staples of the big band era and were regularly featured in the musicals of early hollywood with his collaborators who included richard a whiting harry warren hoagy carmichael jerome kern and harold arlen he wrote the lyrics to some of the most famous standards among them too marvelous for words jeepers creepers skylark i m old fashioned and that old black magic during a career of more than four decades mercer was nominated for the academy award for best song an astonishing eighteen times and won four for his lyrics to on the atchison topeka and the santa fe music by warren in the cool cool cool of the evening music by carmichael and moon river and days of wine and roses music for both by henry mancini you ve probably fallen in love with more than a few of mercer s songs his words have never gone out of fashion and with this superb collection it s easy to see that his lyrics elevated popular song into art this story collection is evidence of a writer who is in total control of her own peculiar original voice its pleasures are unexpected and manifold kate christensen elle lydia davis s stories may be literal one liners like the pithy bloomington or they may be surprising investigations into mundane disruptions such as a small story about a small box of chocolates the stories may appear in the form of letters of complaint they may be extracted from flaubert s correspondence or they may be inspired by the author s own dreams or the dreams of friends what does not vary throughout can t and won t lydia davis s fifth collection of stories is the power of her finely honed prose davis is sharply observant she is wry or witty or poignant above all she is refreshing davis writes with bracing candor and sly humor about the quotidian revealing the mysterious the foreign the alienating and the pleasurable within the predictable patterns of daily life the post apocalyptic modern classic with an introduction by novelist john banville in a burned out america a father and his young son walk under a darkened sky heading slowly for the coast they have no idea what if anything awaits them there the landscape is destroyed nothing moves save the ash on the wind and cruel lawless men stalk the roadside lying in wait attempting to survive in this brave new world the young boy and his protector have nothing but a pistol to defend themselves they must keep walking winner of the pulitzer prize for fiction the road is an incandescent novel the story of a remarkable and profoundly moving journey in this unflinching study of the best and worst of humankind cormac mccarthy boldly divines a future without hope but one in which miraculously this young family finds tenderness an exemplar of post apocalyptic writing the road is a true modern classic a masterful moving and increasingly prescient novel this edition is part of the picador collection a series of the best in contemporary literature inaugurated in picador s 50th anniversary year
