after congregations have considered their history added up all the statistics and tried to be honest about their core values the question still remains who are we really author janet cawley offers a creative engaging and faithful way to answer just that question cawley demonstrates how to use a congregation s knowledge of itself to construct a metaphor of the congregation as a person and then draw on that metaphor to generate options for future mission cawley makes the case that congregations with a clear well articulated identity those that know accept and love who they are can be flexible and respond to change and new initiatives from the holy spirit with boldness because their basic sense of themselves is affirmed rather than threatened they can make faithful and appropriate choices about what they should do congregations will find this intuitive imaginative approach is useful accurate and lots of fun
