in an age in which scholars continue to produce books on the nature and significance of jesus s death books that often assume the old testament cult was the new testament authors primary background for their conception of jesus s death jarvis j williams offers a fresh and novel contribution regarding both the nature of and background influences behind paul s conception of jesus s death he argues that paul s conception of jesus s death both as an atoning sacrifice and as a saving event for jews and gentiles was significantly influenced by maccabean martyr theology to argue his thesis williams engages in an intense exegesis of 2 and 4 maccabees while also interacting with other second temple jewish texts that are relevant to his thesis williams further interacts with relevant old testament texts and the key texts in the pauline corpus he argues that the authors of 2 and 4 maccabees present the deaths of the jewish martyrs during the reign of antiochus epiphanes iv as atoning sacrifices and as a saving event for israel he further argues that although the old testament s cultic language certainly influenced paul s understanding of jesus s death at certain junctures in his letters the old testament cult alone which emphasized animal sacrifices cannot fully explain why or even how paul could conceive of jesus s death a human sacrifice as both an atoning sacrifice and a saving event for jews and gentiles finally williams highlights the lexical theological and conceptual parallels between martyr theology and paul s conception of jesus s death even if scholars disagree with williams s thesis or methodology serious pauline scholars interested in the background influences behind and the nature and significance of Jesus's death in Paul's theology will want to interact with this work be inspired by amazing eyewitness stories of hope and courage from the persecuted church we are witnessing an astonishing escalation in Christian persecution like we have rarely seen since the first century some estimate that every five minutes a Christian is martyred for his or her faith countries like Egypt have experienced more Christian persecution in the last five years than in the previous six hundred years combined and who could have missed the atrocities of ISIS in Syria Boko Haram in Nigeria and the continued persecution of Christians in North Korea Johnnie Moore like many American Christians didn't fully appreciate the extent of what was going on until he witnessed the graduation of theology students in India unlike graduation ceremonies in America where feel good speeches made by visiting celebrities are common this one featured a remarkable oath it wasn't an oath to excel or succeed it was an oath to be willing to die if necessary for the cause of Christ this was no empty promise this was a choice choosing the eternal over the temporal Johnnie knew he was witnessing a raw first century Christianity that his comfortable American version had shielded him from for the first time I really understand my faith says Johnnie Moore now he's on a mission to give this same experience to others he and his team have crisscrossed the world recorders in hand gathering eyewitness accounts from dozens of people who survived persecution and the stories of some who didn't join Johnnie Moore on this compelling journey to the heart of the Christian faith in the days immediately following 9 11 joseph stowell attended a special chicago prayer breakfast he was encouraged to learn there was much interest in god and spirituality among the attendees he was troubled however by the subtle implication common among the speakers that day that jesus with his exclusive claims was unwelcome that given the broad diversity of religions in america we now need to give up the traditions that divide those of us who believe in god stowell left the breakfast even more determined to preach the centrality of christ in the church proclaiming jesus is a collection of essays written by faculty of the moody bible institute in honor of dr stowell that take up the message he proclaimed making it clear that every area of church life and ministry is about jesus
