this is the edition including all three books the so called hermetic writings have been known to christian writers for many centuries the early church fathers justin martyr tertullian clement of alexandria quote them in defense of christianity stobaeus collected fragments of them the humanists knew and valued them they were studied in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and in modern times have again been diligently examined by many scholars g r s mead has issued a translation of the whole body of extant literature with extended prolegomena commentary etc there is a wide difference of opinion as to the date at which this literature was produced mead believes that some of the extant portions of it are at least as early as the earliest christian writings while von christ assigns them to the third christian century and thinks that they show the influence of neo platonism to affirm that they influenced new testament usage would be hazardous but they perhaps throw some light on the direction in which thought was moving in new testament times towards a solution of the vast problems involved in the scientific study of the origins of the christian faith they might thus perhaps be described as the preparation of materials to serve for the historic mythic and mystic consideration of the origins of christianity where the term mythic is used in its true sense of inner typical sacred and logic as opposed to the external processioning of physical events known as historic and where the term mystic is used as that which pertains to initiation and the mysteries the serious consideration of the matter contained in these pages will i hope enable the attentive reader to outline in his mind however vaguely some small portion of the environment of infant christianity and allow him to move a few steps round the cradle of christendom though the material that we have collected has as to its externals been tested as far as our hands are capable of the work by the methods of scholarship and criticism it has nevertheless at the same time been allowed ungrudgingly to show itself the outward expression of a truly vital endeavour of immense interest and value to all who are disposed to make friends with it for along this ray of the trismegistic tradition we may allow ourselves to be drawn backwards in time towards the holy of holies of the wisdom of ancient egypt the sympathetic study of this material may well prove an initiatory process towards an understanding of that archaic gnosis g r s mead
