how does god save sinners this fundamental question is of the highest importance for every human being that has ever lived the answer is given in the bible god is a covenant keeping god who saves sinners through the work of jesus christ the mediator of the covenant of grace with keen insight samuel rutherford unfolds the manner in which god save sinners seen through the three theological and biblically centered covenants found in the bible the covenant of life the covenant of grace and the covenant of redemption this work is one of the most significant of rutherford s treatments of the biblical covenants containing some of rutherford s most mature thoughts this is not a scan or facsimile has been updated in modern english for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions the focus of this volume is a history of covenantal theology in the dead sea scrolls at the heart of the work the author provides new insight into the origins of the new covenant in the land of damascus damascus covenant and of the qumran community covenant of the community the damascus covenant arose as a national restoration movement in 3rd century bc palestine among jews who traced their history back to the returnees from exile the qumran community emerged out of the damascus covenant in the 2nd century bc as a refuge for the faithful when the damascus covenant and the teacher of righteousness suffered the betrayal of some of their adherents other chapters explore the topics of dualism the righteousness of god in the thanksgiving hymns and covenant renewal most people in church have never even heard of the covenant of salt in any of their bible teachings or studies let alone have any understanding of what it could mean to them today they do not know if it is something that is no longer applicable to any of us today even for the jews or if it is still relevant to us today even as christians bishop lester takes a concise look at the various aspects of salt and how it relates to us in our covenant with god and opens up on what it can mean to our christian walk today and in our approach to our bible studies this is a larger print study that should make it easier for all who undertake it in this book the covenant and the promises of god the father and god the son had in an agreement regarding the elect being the children of god from the covenant statutes this covenant was made before the universe was created and it consisted of the father promising to bring to the son all whom the father had to give the world the eternal covenant then leads to the covenant of grace whereas the eternal covenant was made between the father and the son the covenant of grace was made between god and man in this latter covenant god promises to man eternal salvation based upon the sacrifice of jesus on the cross the manifestation of that covenant occurs in our world in a sequence of additional covenants that god made with individuals this leads to liberation from poverty sicknesses and destruction such as well and examples is well treated in this book from abraham isaac jacob about the book this book the covenant of god was written by the inspiration of the holy spirit that came to the man of god on the 3rd of june 2022 while he was waiting on god in prayers fasting and prayers and god told him that he will want to show him his covenant from scripture the secret of the lord is with those who fear him and he will show them his covenant psalms 25 14 nkjv this book is a key to understanding your covenant relationship with god it will show you how to identify your covenant walk with god and how to start your covenant work with god by reading this book you will understand some things about why god want us to serve him why he commanded us to love why he demands dedication from his people why he asked us to pray why we need to fast why the bible is called a covenant book why the word of god is called a covenant book and lots more not much has indeed been preached about the covenant of god and as a result not much has been understood the book will guide you into the truth about the covenant that you can see from scripture
