terrence malick is one of the most important and controversial filmmakers of the last few decades yet his renown does not stem from box office receipts but rather from his inimitable cinematic vision that mixes luminous shots of nature dreamlike voiceovers and plots centered on enduring existential questions although scholars have thoroughly examined malick's background in philosophy they have been slower to respond to his theological concerns this volume is the first to focus on the ways in which malick integrates theological inquiries and motifs into his films the book begins with an exploration of malick's career as a filmmaker and shows how his heideggerian interests relate to theology further essays from established and up and coming scholars analyze seven of malick s most prominent films badlands 1973 days of heaven 1978 the thin red line 1998 the new world 2005 the tree of life 2011 to the wonder 2012 and knight of cups 2015 to show how his cinematic techniques point toward and overlap with principles of christian theology a thorough study of an iconic filmmaker this book is an essential resource for students and scholars in the emerging field of religion and film
