this book presents twelve of the author's selected essays on subjects related to contemporary Chinese thought and examines other significant works on the history of Chinese philosophy by combining the basic political discourse on Confucianism. It highlights the significance of Confucian socialism in the present day and explains the author's reflections on the philosophy and modernization of Chinese thought. This book is a valuable resource for experts and scholars as well as for general readers who have an understanding of contemporary Chinese philosophy, offering deep insights into current Chinese thought and Confucian modernization.

Indian Modernity first published in 1998 acquires a new meaning today while it critiques a technocratic model of modernization. It visualizes alternative possibilities to give a distinctively new definition to our modernity. It engages the reader in dreaming of a new path to modernity beyond its present contradictions and paradoxes with its lyrical style. Philosophic insights, sensitivity to deep religiosity, life affirming femininity, and most of all sociological imagination. This book continues to hold relevance for social science students and researchers, teachers, and visionaries despite the passage of time. This title is co-published with Aakar Books. Print editions not for sale in South Asia, India, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bangladesh, Pakistan, and Bhutan.

Themelios is an international evangelical peer-reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith. Themelios is published three times a year online at the gospel coalition (thegospelcoalition.org/Themelios) and in print by WIFP and Stock. Its primary audience is theological students and pastors, though scholars read it as well. Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by the gospel coalition in 2008. The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors, essayists, and reviewers. General editor: D. A. Carson, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School; Managing editor: Brian Tabb, Bethlehem College and Seminary; Consulting editor: Michael J.
