new quantitative methodology and the development of corpus and experimental linguistics tools have recently made researching lexical comprehension and production more accessible while several tools and data sets are available in english coh metrix celex and a few other languages the development of resources and empirical research is still lacking in spanish this volume brings together original empirical research and theoretical perspectives that examine lexical development in spanish l1 l2 and l3 with a focus on different teaching approaches and textbook coverage of spanish lexicon in l2 curricula and the use of corpus linguistics in methodological investigations some questions addressed include the role of lexical development in mapping grammatical acquisition phases the potential transfers of l1 to l2 lexical abilities the effect of explicit vocabulary learning techniques in l2 how affective meaning modulates l2 acquisition or how a typological understanding of lexical organization can help in teaching more effectively the lexicon of a language among many others the book offers an overview of what is currently being done in the field of spanish lexical acquisition through a myriad of approaches and topics this volume contains 30 papers selected from two conferences which were held jointly at the pennsylvania state university in 2005 the 9th hispanic linguistics symposium and the 8th conference on the acquisition of spanish and portuguese as first and second languages the papers are organized into sections on theoretical syntax phonetics and phonology second language acquisition and teaching acquisition of syntax and sociolinguistics affect in foreign language and second language learning offers high school and college university second language teachers or teachers in training practical suggestions for creating activities that take into account learner anxieties frustrations or discomfort in the language learning process the objective of the book is to offer concrete instructional approaches for language learning that are rooted in second language acquisition research and at the same time that promote a low anxiety classroom environment the authors of each chapter are specialists in specific areas of language learning and their essays composed specifically for this volume lay the groundwork for continued research on affect in language learning this text is part of the mcgraw hill second language professional series edited by james f lee and bill vanpatten
