what is the best you have ever felt have you ever experienced a time when you felt content at peace and with a feeling of lacking nothing and of underlying joy for Kimberley Arnold this feeling occurred when she held her newborn son for the first time this feeling and the lack thereof throughout most of her life directed her to the quest to understand what love actually is and what great spiritual masters were eluding to when they used the word love Kimberley's insights have led to the realization of authentic love which like love is a noun and verb but also a spiritual process or path that leads you to who you are your soul and connects you to the divine which results in joy peace and contentment this book provides deep and relevant insights into what authentic love is and how to practically achieve it

In 1970 an awakening experience left the author with the gift of oracles similar to that of Nostradamus although simple in structure at first the oracles were almost impossible to comprehend in time Frank noticed that the words started to cross reference themselves slowly revealing an ancient language once understood this language would become a Rosetta stone that unlocks the hidden mysteries of God's written word illuminating for us the deeper meaning of religion past lives karma soul connections and the nature of good and evil the oracles of Ephesus will unveil hidden knowledge from the Bible the Bhagavad Gita the Nag Hammadi writings and the Dead Sea scrolls while helping you understand yourself and your relationship with your creator

A collection of real life Buddhist love stories with commentary and guided exercises for couples developed by Peggy Rowe Ward and Larry Ward senior students and ordained Dharma teachers in the tradition of Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh these personal stories from couples of a range of different ages and experiences illustrate how Buddhist principles can help couples navigate any stage of their relationship it took the authors some good living and good loving before they realized that the love that they were seeking was already present and available in the depths of their hearts and mind love does not depend on anything that is happening out there and is not dependent on anything he or she might do it depends on our own willingness to look within and to act this insight is a result of practicing the teachings of the Buddha on right diligence and right effort the authors have been studying and practicing with Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and they are happy to report that the practices work in love's garden the authors offer key practices such as the three keyes see excerpt for the transformation of suffering and the establishment of happiness these practices have helped them see each other's happiness as their own they share stories and illustrations from their own life and also and those of their friends and students brrb the practice is not difficult we simply need to get in touch with and nourish the practices that are helping us to experience peace and then we need to stop doing the things that keep us from experiencing peace larry ward
