the genius of paul is evident in chapter 2 of his letter to the ephesians however more importantly two truths are revealed through a closer examination of his presentation first is the realization that paul listens contemplates and abides by the words of his savior and ours in presenting the truths revealed to him this was the result of paul relinquishing the mantle of self centeredness and replacing it with the crown of christ centeredness this became his guiding light through the tests trials and tribulations of walking with jesus second there is the recognition of paul s love for and commitment to professing christians whether they be babes in the faith adolescents or maturing adults he realized they had been or would be confronted by the desires of the flesh and of the mind during their life s journey he wanted them to know the living christ this chapter is pivotal to understanding god s mercy and grace as well as our need for his spiritual blessings when we accept the lord jesus invitation to follow him in his commands and teachings we will know the joy of a right relationship with the glorious father reconciliation through christ praying through the holy spirit and god s foundation built on the apostles and prophets although the reception of the eastern father gregory of nyssa has varied over the centuries the past few decades have witnessed a profound awakening of interest in his thought the body and desire sets out to retrieve the full range of gregory s thinking on the challenges of the ascetic life by examining within the context of his theological commitments his evolving attitudes on what we now call gender sex and sexuality exploring gregory s understanding of the importance of bodily and spiritual maturation for the practices of contemplation and virtue raphael a cadenhead recovers the vital relevance of this vision of transformation for contemporary ethical discourse the apostle paul in exercising his ineffable wisdom draws this magnificent letter to a close in an extraordinary manner certainly he could have concluded it after telling the masters and servants how to treat one another but no he did not he proceeded to challenge them to become christ s ambassadors and to be proficient in this high calling despite the daily obstacles pressures and temptations what does paul boldly state after having told christ s followers t hat we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight trickery of men and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive that they will have a life of ease no problems or worries and no challenges disappointments or hardships no but he did tell them how to conduct themselves in all of life s different phases further that they were to walk in love as christ hath also loved us and that not everyone hath any inheritance in the kingdom of christ and god paul contra to the practice today of many preachers teachers and church officers knew the problems that christ s followers faced and he boldly addressed them he unequivocally stated that there were things appointed for them to do knowing these things and the difficulties encountered in following christ he issued a battle call to each and every follower saying take up unto you the whole armor of god that ye may be able to stand in the evil day and having done all to stand paul was forthright in describing the benefits and challenges of walking with jesus as well as the attitude conduct and conversation precluding one from entering the kingdom of christ and god if we are to be christ s ambassadors whether it be preacher teacher church officer or profess ing christian we are to know our duties and carry them out resolutely what are they they include but are not limited to discharging our duties honorably being loyal subjects following instructions knowing the word and obeying christ s commands may we along with paul pray the following with humility and sincerity for which i am an ambassador that therein i may speak boldly as i ought to speak as one of his ambassadors this book is a result of the times in which we are living these times demand a response when the authors began to write this book it was not popular to dissent against the bush administration in fact dissent was and still is equated with terrorism now it might seem that the tide is turning and maybe after the 2008 election some of this nightmare we have been experiencing will change at least that is the optimistic view but there are small traces that the struggle the authors discuss in this book will continue well into the 21st century the intermingling of the political and the religious is still swirling in the present context the civic gospel as the authors discuss it is the notion that preaching the gospel is preaching politics and vice versa this book is about that struggle and the issues related to it
