this ground breaking work offers a challenging and positive view of postmodern culture it draws on the author s extensive interviews with a number of leading postmodern artists writers and performers including jean baudrillard samuel beckett john cage phillip glass the parameters of postmodernism focuses on both the prevailing negative theories of postmodernism and the more positive aspects of postmodern theory and practice the negative aspect is exemplified by the work of writers like brecht beckett barthes and baudrillard who emphasise the death of artistic innovation and the lack of a permanent reality zurbrugg highlights the contradictions in the arguments of these writers and examines the later works in which they qualify their earlier more infamous statements the positive aspect is characterised by artists such as cage glass and monk who interweave the new postmodern media with confidence and invention and eco grass and wolf who revive mythological and folkloric traditions the parameters of postmodernism argues that in each case high tech or revivalist postmodern creativity culminates in a highly positive synthesis of past present and futuristic materials the collection positions is dedicated to the publication of artist s writings john miller perfectly embodies the aim of this series to interrogate artistic and curatorial practices as well as theory through the singular position of artists involved in both their own and other artist s works this production reception question might even be a real dialectic in miller s case from his early writings in fact he argues that the artist has no other choice but to confront sociopolitical questions the ideological apparatus involved in the production of cultural artifacts and therefore the theoretical corpus be it walter benjamin the frankfurt school or feminist and poststructuralist writings that enables one to re conceive these dimensions of artmaking from polemical texts to extensive theoretical essays passing through ed ruscha bruce nauman or john baldessari these writings have proved to be among the most challenging ones for every art lover who travels and for travelers who love art the 1999 edition of this essential book offers invaluable information and museum schedules for museums in the united states canada and europe as well as australia and japan 150 illustrations this show takes with duchamp picabia and man ray as its kernal a trio of dada originators who are united by the fact that their iconoclasm was primarily aesthetic rather than political in its expression unlike that of most of their peers as well as by the fact that their metaphysics were shot through with an irreverent humour with the nexus of these interconnecting ideas art objects and artistic personalities as its starting point the exhibition traces a number of moments when their impact has proven both particularly strong and highly stimulating for subsequent artists book jacket
