music and levels of narration in film is the first book length study to synthesize scholarly contributions toward a narrative theory of film music moving beyond the distinction between diegetic and nondiegetic music or music that is not understood as part of a film's story world. Guido Heldt systematically discusses music at different levels of narration from the extrafictional to focalizations of subjectivity. Heldt then applies this conceptual toolkit to study the narrative strategies of music in individual films as well as genres including musicals and horror films. The resulting volume will be an indispensable resource for anyone researching or
