for centuries pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of africa moreover its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilizatrice mission to civilize however since the 1980s neo pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the congoese christendom it sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects this book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents in this case the vulnerable impoverished sections of sub saharan africa and particularly the postcolonial congo and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens neo pentecostal studies with an african voice encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission the research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel it is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the bible in the congo to avoid the african assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the congoese interpret the bible the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of christ in the text instead of the voice of congoese culture they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story
