Cambridge English Empower is a general adult course that combines course content from Cambridge University Press with validated assessment from the experts at Cambridge English Language Assessment. The Pre Intermediate Teacher's book offers detailed teaching notes for every lesson of the Student's book. It includes extra photocopiable activities, keys to exercises and extra teaching notes.

face2face is the flexible, easy-to-teach general English course that helps adults and young adults to speak and listen with confidence. face2face is informed by the Cambridge English Corpus and its vocabulary syllabus has been mapped to the English Vocabulary Profile, meaning students learn the language they really need at each CEFR level. The course improves students' listening skills by drawing their attention to the elements of spoken English that are difficult to understand. The free DVD-ROM in the Student's book includes consolidation activities and an electronic portfolio for learners to track their progress with customisable tests and grammar and vocabulary reference sections.

Provides a flexible course for adults and young adults. This work presents a communicative syllabus that helps students to express themselves through English. The Teacher's book contains teaching tips, systematic teaching notes, photocopiable unit and module tests, 24 extra photocopiable discussion lessons and communication games and more.

Features a general English course based on observation of what good teachers do in the classroom. This Teacher's book contains teaching notes, methodology builders, photocopiable activities, editable tests and an audio CD.

A practical course for adult learners working in the technical, industrial and scientific sectors in an international context who need English for everyday workplace communications. Key features: simple needs-related language presented clearly and logically on a need-to-know basis to help learners start communicating immediately; vocabulary relevant to practical work situations; short practical speaking tasks enable learners to use new language in hands-on contexts such as explaining purpose, giving instructions and describing what things do; frequent recycling to continually review and consolidate learning; real help in telephoning, e-mailing and reading technical information; survival skills such as getting directions, changing money and ordering food; plus games and other fun activities. Teacher's book: unit by unit teaching notes, information and ideas for non-specialist teachers, full answer key.

This resource is written for teachers of adult and young adult students studying English in Australia and New Zealand. It presents 15 units designed to provide skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening, supports and extends the International Headway series by using the same themes with an Australasian content. A Student's book and an audio cassette are also available.

This is a short, pacy course which is practical, flexible and easily accessible to both students and teachers. It has a distinctive task-centred approach with the aim of developing key business-related skills and language. The language syllabus is selective; language is addressed on a need-to-know basis in the Student's book, with a more systematic review of grammar in the workbook. Each of the five units covers key areas such as dealing with people, participating in meetings, exchanging information and problem-solving. The principal focus is on developing students' speaking and listening skills. Each unit is divided into five or six sub-sections which all end with a practical work-related output task. There is a more substantial output activity at the end of the unit. Learners are encouraged to draw on their existing skills, knowledge and experience of the workplace to carry out these tasks. Contexts are introduced by up-to-date material from a variety of authentic sources. The content has an international feel and does not present specifically british or american cultural or linguistic models there is a strong emphasis on vocabulary development with key vocabulary lists in each unit
