stagecoaches carried visitors to and through yellowstone national park for thirty eight years from 1878 to 1916 and helped establish yellowstone as a world famous travel destination this volume one of a two volume set by preeminent yellowstone historian lee whittlesey is an engaging account of stagecoaching s first years in the park in lively often humorous prose whittlesey describes the evolution of stagecoach travel in yellowstone the colorful men and women who ran the stagecoach companies and the types of stagecoaches that carried tourists in the park including the famed tally ho design along the way whittlesey profiles the stagecoach drivers who were rough and profane but men of undoubted nerve and he shares stories from passengers who were appalled by their drivers the mind shattering and bone rattling roads the armed hold ups and the relentless dust yet who were entranced by the wonders of this new wonderland a new book by yellowstone s premier historian is always cause for celebration lee whittlesey s off with the crack of a whip is both a lively colorful paean to the park s legendary stagecoach days and an astonishing achievement of research on an encyclopedic scale an amazing book paul schullery author of searching for yellowstone and the bear doesn t know this book is an excellent source for anyone doing research on yellowstone history because stagecoach tourism as lee whittlesey shows was intertwined with almost every aspect of yellowstone s development thoroughly well documented off with the crack of a whip is a fascinating ride into yellowstone s stagecoaching past dr judith meyer professor emeritus missouri state university springfield retired and author of the spirit of yellowstone

this annotated list of the birds of nebraska grew gradually out of research associated with my writing of the birds of the great plains breeding species and their distribution johnsgard 1979a it expands and updates an earlier version that was published in 2013 by the university of nebraska lincoln libraries digitalcommons zea books johnsgard 2013a it has been updated and modified in its current revision to conform with the most recent 2017 major revision of the American Ornithologists Society's checklist of North American birds. Chesser et al 2017. It has also been modified in its current revision to conform very closely to the most recent official list of the birds of Nebraska by the Nebraska Ornithologists Union Gubanyi 1997 and later supplements in the Nebraska Bird Review to 84 138 150. The new official state list of birds 461 species as of 2017 is based on actual specimen evidence or some other convincing basis of each species' proven occurrence in the state. That list includes 337 regular species, 29 casual species, 90 accidental species, and 5 extinct or extirpated species. In this edition, I have classified 368 of the 461 species of Nebraska birds as ranging in relative frequency of occurrence from abundant to rare. There are also 61 species considered to be of accidental occurrence having been reliably reported in Nebraska no more than five times, 20 that are considered extremely rare or very rare if reported from six to 25 times. There are also three extinct, four extirpated, and five unsuccessfully introduced species. Thirteen hypothetical species of dubious origin or identification are mentioned parenthetically. The text includes more than 123,000 words, nearly 200 literature references, and 19 pages of drawings and maps.
