this historic book may have numerous typos and missing text purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher not indexed not illustrated 1869 edition excerpt poor heart depart from me for i am a sinful man O lord is the first cry of a soul coming forth into the daylight which melts into the prayer god be merciful to me a sinner then a blessed sense of communion with brother men around him springs up within his heart he has found what is common to man common sin common need of salvation from sin we cannot scorn each other brother we cannot spurn each other we will not torment each other there is one enemy who is tormenting both of us we can weep together brother we can pray together we shall be saved together and we shall live together saved in heaven then the true fellowship begins when souls are out of the darkness in the light of god's grace and love then if we walk in the light as he is in the light we have fellowship one with another and the blood of jesus christ his son cleanseth us from all sin the darkness isolates the pharisee is alone he has never found the common term father i have sinned wherein the human brotherhood subsists god i thank thee that i am not as these men is the only recognition of them which he vouchsafes the habit of saying i am holier than thou the habit of comparing ourselves with those whom we may choose to brand as sinners instead of with god before whom we should find ourselves wholesomely on their level easily hardens into a conviction of this kind i am of superior order i am what these men never can be my class is the elect band of the great human company the rest are the dross to my gold the chaff to my corn the great assay of life but assures my privilege and sweeps the mass with undistinguishing carelessness mr allen upward better known to fame as a war correspondent has attempted to give us a reading of the history of christianity down to the time of christ and however much we may disagree with some of his conclusions we must at least applaud the sincerity and the originality as well as the erudition of his effort mr upward finds in the dawn of christianity a story that has been told mystically from age to age its words and signs are inherited from a primeval language from prehistoric peoples and from tales that are still the bible of the peasant and the child it is he says a recrystallization of universal fears and hopes carried out in the crucible of a planetary heat wave whose coming had been more or less distinctly felt by a series of true prophets from zoroaster to john the baptist mr upward believes that christ was an historical personage but that the story of his life is an allegorical repetition of the greater story that is as old as the world it self to this end he collects all the threads of folklore within his reach all the superstitions that perhaps are not superstitions and that tend to show the stirrings of a higher consciousness and knowledge that culminates in the genius and the savior if sometimes he seems to be inadequate or superficial we must remember the greatness the almost incredible magnitude of the quarries from which he hews the christian mystery celebrated in the roman catholic liturgy is a sensible mystery and calls out for artistic expression living beauty explores the christian mystery and points to the need for a liturgical aesthetic as a means to encounter the divine mystery a liturgical aesthetic gives an account of christian worship in terms of a new set of categories that includes divine beauty a theology of sensibility and the new notion of a unitive revelatory experience these categories help to reveal the aesthetic dimensions of the church s watershed document on the liturgy sacrosanctum concilium the church today stands in need of a new conversation on the aesthetic dimension of the liturgy and the role of the arts contrary to common opinion the arts provide more than an environment or mere extrinsic ornamentation for the liturgy they are intrinsic to the very nature of liturgy they provide the means of being sanctified in the encounter with divine beauty that is the mystery of christian worship artistic expression enables the worshiping community to receive the divine mystery in beauty excerpt from the divine mysteries the divine treatment of sin and the divine mystery of peace i thankfully accept such light whencesoever it may come being sure that it is ultimately from the supreme fountain and that it will guide in the direction which we are all bound to pursue but i have not entered on the discussion of these points because my argument does not stand on the literal historical truth of the account which the bible gives us of the origz ms of the human race whatever may be proved to be the fact as to the outer history the inner history i hold to be true to the heart s core and part of the revelation of god nothing which i have heard or read has changed my views of the essential truth of this record as the history of man s spiritual development thus sin is born and grows a paradise a fall a discovery of the hard conditions of life to the sinner lit by a promise a hope that god would share them and make them ministers of redemption must lie it seems to me at the foundations of human history about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works the divine mystery is a detailed treatise on incubi and succubi maleficent entities that feed on their prey through sexual intercourse it includes instructions on how to contact them and chapters on the human soul the afterlife the universe and much more with heavy reference to the bible this fascinating volume explores the biblical concepts of demons elementals and gods in great detail making it highly recommended for those with an interest in demonology and the supernatural reuben swinburne clymer 1878 1966 was an american occultist and rosicrucian he was responsible creating one of the oldest rosicrucian organizations in the america the fraternitas rosae crucis many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with the original text and artwork
