this book showcases how the people s republic of china prc has been utilizing the belt and road initiative bri to reshape the global order dissecting china s increasingly assertive international behaviour the book demonstrates how the prc projects its self perception onto the international order the book outlines five aspects of china s international role projection which the prc applies selectively depending on its target audience 1 the bearer of traditional chinese culture 2 the humiliated nation 3 the socialist state with chinese characteristics 4 the developing state and promoter of international development 5 the authoritarian globalization optimist drawing on an in depth analysis of hundreds of primary bri documents the book offers a comprehensive overview of china s most crucial foreign policy agenda item it demonstrates how through the bri the prc has introduced mechanisms to the international level which reflect its domestic policy making mode in addition the prc has institutionalized the initiative by establishing china centered bri networks across a wide range of policy areas within those emerging china centered bri networks the prc systematically increases its international discursive power for example by inserting chinese vocabulary into un resolutions or by promoting beijing s approaches vis à vis the rule of law across a range of developing states this book also further discusses the implications of the bri for the international legal order
