wahlen jones pagach's intermediate accounting provides the context students need to understand accounting's unique value to an organization. wahlen's approachable writing style infuses this context through the use of a well-known company in a running thread case and by using other recognizable companies like coca cola, louis vuitton, and nestle in discussions. recognizing that the world of accounting is changing rapidly, wahlen provides currency and flexibility in its discussions of ifrs codification and pending fasb changes while also providing concrete ways for you to apply these concepts. wahlen offers the breadth and depth of coverage you need while making intermediate accounting accessible.

in the course of a merger and acquisition, in a transaction, the principals and their advisors face a series of decisions often against the backdrop of an unrealistic deadline, imperfect information, and a shrewd other side. in making these decisions, they have to deal with complex technical matters at the intersection of disciplines including accounting, law, taxation, corporate finance, operations, environmental, and strategy. it is not always possible during the negotiations to take a step back and contemplate issues likely to arise before or after completion that may result in a dispute or to address or mitigate risks. it is therefore easy in these highly charged circumstances to create outcomes that end up in legal disputes. a sound understanding of the completion mechanism including the basis and measurement of individual purchase price adjustments is important to negotiate good deals and avoid disputes. this book provides an in-depth discussion of the completion mechanism including key arguments for or against individual deductions or adjustments. this can be helpful in negotiations. it also provides diagnostic tools and many recommendations that can help avoid disputes if a dispute has occurred. it discusses how it can be resolved as well as the conceptual basis and practical approaches to the measurement of damages. the book deals with numerous matters that need to be addressed during and after negotiations and can lead to post-completion dissonance including the following: the equity bridge from firm value to the purchase price for the equity closing conditions, the closing process and the completion accounts. an in-depth discussion of individual purchase price adjustments from factoring to pensions and from leases to the working capital reference value, material adverse change clauses, aspects of locked box transactions including the interest over the locked box period, how to structure earn outs to avoid disputes, red flags for fraud, damages valuation in disputes, and lessons learned on how to avoid or deal with disputes. the author analyses a large number of actual post-completion disputes as a lens to bring into focus.

precisely where things go wrong in practice he then sets out practical solutions to the problems dealmakers face how to negotiate individual price adjustments and lessons learned from disputes this book will be useful to m a practitioners be they in house counsel private equity sovereign wealth funds international arbitration centres or other players as well as the investment bankers accountants and the professionals who advise them it will also prove to be of great value to those who deal with post m a disputes judges arbitrators and litigators and legal academics interested in the m a field

m a disputes which range from breach of warranty and fraud claims to disagreements over price adjustments earn outs material adverse change clauses and many others are more common than many participants in m a transactions may realise they can take years to resolve and cost many millions of pounds euros or dollars a dispute can adversely affect the post transaction environment and hence the prospects of a successful acquisition or at worst frustrate a deal entirely it is therefore vital to understand how such disputes happen how they can be resolved and how to avoid them or at least minimise the potential for an m a dispute this indispensable practice guide provides not only a comprehensive discussion of the mechanics of m a transactions and purchase price adjustments but also a deeply informed analysis of what goes wrong in deals that leads to disputes and how to avoid or resolve such eventualities originally intended as a second edition of the author s well known m a disputes and completion mechanisms published in 2018 this is in fact a new book drawing on a new set of experiences and observations taken from a period where the scope for m a disputes has intensified framed as an in depth discussion of typical questions that confront those who assess financial and accounting issues in m a disputes including the question of damages the analysis expertly investigates the pitfalls that can arise in such components of the process as the following the completion mechanism including the rationale and basis of measurement of individual purchase price adjustments and the locked box the role of accounting information in presenting or misrepresenting the underlying economic reality of a business and in informing a valuation valuation principles standards of value and valuation methods used for m a disputes valuation matters specific to m a disputes including the question of value vs price and the choice of counterfactuals material adverse change clauses and red flags for fraud a concluding chapter distils lessons learned into a short practical commentary drawing on the author s extensive experience of m a and related disputes with recommendations that plot a clear path to avoidance of disputes with its sound understanding of the completion mechanism including an extensive discussion of measurement of individual purchase price adjustments the locked box and how to identify fraud this practical and up to date guide grounded in corporate finance theory will be a valuable resource to all those who work on m a transactions whether as principal adviser insurer funder independent expert judge or arbitrator
