this book is a meditation on the experiences of wonder horror and awe and an exploration of their ontological import it argues that these experiences are not as our culture often presumes merely subjective emotive responses to events that happen in the world rather they are transformative

within seventy two hours of my arrival in cairo from the soudan i commenced to dictate my experiences for the present volume and had dictated them from the time i left egypt in 1887 until i had reached the incidents connected with my arrival at omdurman as the khaleefa s captive when i became the recipient of a veritable sheaf of press cuttings extracts letters private and official new and old which collection was still further added to on the arrival of my wife in egypt on october 13 my first feelings after reading the bulk of these and when the sensation of walking about free and unshackled had worn off a little was that i had but escaped the savage barbarism of the soudan to become the victim of the refined cruelty of civilization fortunately maybe my rapid change from chains and starvation to freedom and the luxuries i might allow myself to indulge in brought about its inevitable result a reaction and then collapse while ill in bed i could when the delirium of fever had left me and i was no longer struggling for breath and standing room in that black hole of omdurman the saier find it in my heart to forgive my critics and say i might have said the same of them had they been in my place and i in theirs but the inaccuracies written and published in respect to my nationality biography and above all the astounding inaccuracies published in connection with my capture and the circumstances attending it necessitate my offering a few words to my readers by way of introduction but i shall be as brief and concise as possible
