the works of Juan de la Cruz contains numerous passages dealing with human cognition both ordinary and mystical this study traces San Juan's examination of the mystic's knowledge in and through God the sixteenth century Spanish thinker stresses that conditionality is a fundamental character of all human knowledge and brings to light a complex movement of contiguity between one and another mode of cognitive activity also discussed is the expression through the instruments of prose and poetry of the mystic's supereminent and therefore ineffable experience of knowledge and love relying upon Juan de la Cruz's own texts it is shown how a relative communication can be effected despite the barriers separating mystical from ordinary cognition amplia retrospectiva dedicada a este pintor francés en el marco del museo del Prado muy querido por el artista que visitó en su célebre viaje a Madrid en 1865 admirador de los pintores españoles del siglo de oro los tomó como ejemplo de ruptura de fórmulas establecidas para entrar en la modernidad
