this publication is the third biennial report coordinated by the united nations office for disaster risk reduction unisdr the first and second reports focused primarily on public policy and the role of national and local governments in disaster risk reduction this current report explores why increasing disaster risks represent a growing problem for the economic and business community at different scales it examines how paradoxically business investments that aimed to strengthen competitiveness and productivity may have inadvertently contributed to increasing risks this report seeks to engage businesses in a dialogue on disaster risk management that goes beyond the current emphasis on response and preparedness and instead identifies opportunities for the creation of shared value for business and society
