miikka ruokanen reveals the powerfully trinitarian and participatory nature of martin luther s conception of divine grace in his magnum opus the bondage of the will the study establishes a genuinely new understanding of luther s major treatise opening up its ecumenical potential luther s debate with erasmus signifies not only a disagreement concerning free will but the dispute reveals two contrasting understandings of the very core idea of the christian faith for erasmus the relationship of the human being with god is based on the rationally and morally acceptable principles of fair play for luther the human being is captivated by the overwhelming power of unfaith and transcendental evil satan only the monergistic grace of the triune god and the power of the holy spirit can liberate him her ruokanen verifies the trinitarian vision of salvation by grace alone as the center of luther s theology this doctrine has three dimensions firstly the conversion of the sinner and the birth of faith in christ are effected by prevenient divine grace justification through faith alone is the sole work of god s spirit comparable to creation ex nihilo secondly participation in the person life and divine properties of christ as well as participation in his salvific work his cross and resurrection are possible solely because of the presence of the holy spirit in the believer justification means simultaneously the forensic declaration of the guilty non guilty on the basis of the atonement by jesus cross as well as a union with christ in the holy spirit thirdly sanctification means the gradual growth of love for god and neighbor enabled by the believer s participation in divine love in the holy spirit ruokanen s work offers a crucial modification and advance to the world renowned finnish school of luther interpretation luther s classic use of pneumatological language avoids the problems caused by using an ontological language the christian life is a battle but many believers today don t realize their involvement in spiritual warfare our secular society characterized by doubt and spiritual skepticism leaves many christians embarrassed even to talk about demonic forces of opposition in order to awaken christians to the battle around them and prepare them for it robert smart surveys the terrain identifies the enemy and conveys defensive and offensive maneuvers for combating satan just as military science combines knowledge of the humanities natural sciences applied sciences and engineering so this military textbook combines knowledge of the bible historical theology contemporary culture apologetics practical theology and biblical counseling here is a well rounded overview of the unavoidable reality of spiritual warfare table of contents introduction the call to engage in spiritual warfare 1 god is a warrior biblical foundations for spiritual warfare 2 historical theology on spiritual warfare 3 the age of doubt and the conditions for unbelief 4 satan s strategies when christians are vulnerable 5 waging war in god s strength armor and weapons 6 waging war on identity 7 curses and power encounters conclusion saints triumphant in the gospel
