a slice of my life from 1927 to the first decades of the 21st century cover page over the past few decades the complicated divides of geography class religion and race created deep fractures in the united states each side fighting to advance its own mythology and political interests we lack a central story a common ground we can celebrate and enrich with deeper meaning unable to agree on first principles we cannot agree on what it means to be american as we dismantle or disregard symbols and themes that previously united us can we replace them with stories and rites that unite our tribes and maintain meaning in our american identity against this backdrop our american story features leading thinkers from across the political spectrum jim banks pulitzer prize winner david w blight spencer p boyer eleanor clift john c danforth cody delistraty richard a epstein nikolas gvosdev cherie harder jason kuznicki gerard n magliocca markos moulitsas ilya somin cass r sunstein alan taylor james v wertsch gordon s wood and ali wyne each draws on expertise within their respective fields of history law politics and public policy to contribute a unique perspective about the american story this collection explores whether a unifying story can be achieved and if so what that story could be purchase the audio edition i didn't know i was black until i came to the united states the journey to my personal understanding of blackness has been long and rife with pain and passion excitement and exasperation the fact that the facets of my identity seem to stretch across the diaspora equatorial guinea nigeria trinidad and tobago and the united states means that this journey has not been straightforward it has been treacherous with many frustrating moments when i was not sure how much lower my self esteem could go but it has also been exceedingly rewarding as i stumbled upon new paths to convert each disappointment into an opportunity to grow and become more confident in who i was sometimes that has meant becoming overzealous in my own self affirmation the tone of my voice taking on a sharper edge as i explained to others why pride in blackness was a requisite characteristic of any kind of black progress but i justify that stride by thinking of the dearth of encouragement from sources that are not bothered by the profundity of blackness including the educational system popular culture and mainstream media the bitterness that comes with the construction of race as a state of being and the making of racism as a behavior and attitude can be tasted potently in the new world it takes a fundamental encounter with whiteness for one to truly appreciate the meaning of blackness however a picture of tribalism and ethnic tensions is vividly displayed in the midst of blackness in the heart of africa so my story has been a two pronged journey through tribalism and racism
