a reissue of the classic Australian picture book by Jeannie Baker about an old lady who feeds the pigeons in Hyde Park. Millicent is a gentle story about an old lady's daily wanderings through Hyde Park to feed the pigeons. She never stops to speak to anyone except the birds who fly towards her when she arrives. Along the way we hear Millicent's thoughts and feelings towards the pigeons that she so dearly loves and cares for. Her dream is to find enough feathers on the ground to make a coat, hat, bag, and shoes so she will be warm and cosy just like a pigeon. Millicent features Jeannie Baker's intricately detailed collages which capture a particular Australian atmosphere and place in time.

picture story book for young children about a little girl's visit to her grandmother's old but cosy house. Detailed illustrations in the unique collage method which has become a hallmark of the award-winning author/illustrator's style.

lifelike collage illustrations capture an extraordinary visual journey through a tropical rain forest.

the Australian desert for thousands of years. The only changes here were made by the wind, the Willy Willies, and sometimes the rain. Then a hundred years ago people from Europe settled in the desert and planted seeds from the other side of the world. The story of Rosy Dock is the story of one of the settlers who followed them and her garden in the wilderness, a garden that is beautiful but with an unexpected flowering.

a family, a house, a neighborhood, a place to play, a place to feel safe. Little by little, Baby Tracy grows, she and her neighbors begin to rescue their street. Together, children and adults plant grass and trees and bushes in the empty spaces. They paint murals over old graffiti. They stop the cars. Everything begins to blossom. In Jeannie Baker's striking natural collages, an urban community reclaims its land. A drab city street becomes a living, thriving neighborhood, a place to call home.
