curriculum visions challenges the singular guiding vision that has dominated western educational thought for the past four centuries from peter ramus to ralph tyler and beyond influenced by the spirit of john dewey curriculum visions moves beyond his ghost to see what he never saw a playful integration of the scientific the storied and the spiritfull in so doing curriculum visions asks each of us to develop our own curricular vision based on the logic of reason the personality and culture of society and the awesomeness and mystery of creation in a casebook of psychotherapy integration editors george strieker and jerry gold bring together a group of master therapists leaders in their fields to demonstrate how they successfully apply their own integrative approaches compelling case examples written in accessible and engaging language illustrate the various shapes that integration may take after briefly introducing the theoretical model from which they work the therapists describe not only how they intervened in each case but also how they thought about the case at critical decision points throughout the therapy the cases bring to life many contemporary issues and provide opportunities for both experienced and novice therapists to hone their sensitivities and skills with a diverse range of clients
