fascinating and entertaining stories about lively historical characters and events based on thorough and extensive research but written in a highly readable and accessible style this often touching sometimes hilarious book does not focus on dates or military strategy nor does it attempt to condemn or vindicate the people involved rather it focuses on the human interest stories that flavored this the last of the gentlemen s wars from the humorous story of the boers firing shells laden with plum pudding on christmas day into the beseiged town of ladysmith to the tragic legend of the flowers this volume is sure to entertain educate and inspire for more than a decade jacques pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy what he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal pauw s stories range from south africa to rwanda from sierra leone and the sudan to mozambique readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humor and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it s true that there is nothing new out of africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honored tales of love life misery and mortality
