Salter's life and work bridged two continents and cultures and spanned the political turmoil of the mid twentieth century. He survived both world wars, the rise of National Socialism in Germany and permanent exile in a new land, but nothing halted his tireless and brilliant design work. Classic Book Jackets tells Salter's story and describes the innovative thinking he brought to his clients and students, including his designation of seven jacket types that are still valid today. It includes more than two hundred reproductions of his finest works as well as a complete catalog of his jackets, designs and lettering jobs for the book trade.

Could a little known drug really revolutionize treatment for autoimmune diseases, cancer, depression and more? LDN raises hopes of reversing memory loss in old age. The Guardian over 30,000 copies sold. Low dose naltrexone LDN holds the potential to help millions of people suffering from various autoimmune diseases and cancers and even autism, chronic fatigue and depression find relief. Administered off label in small daily doses of 5 to 45 mg, this generic drug is extremely affordable and presents few known side effects. So why has it languished in relative medical obscurity? The LDN Book explains the drug's origins, its primary mechanism, the latest research from practicing physicians and pharmacists compiled by Linda Elsegood of the LDN Research Trust, the world's largest LDN charity organization with over 19,000 members worldwide. The book features ten chapters contributed by medical professionals on LDN's efficacy and two patient friendly appendices. The LDN Book is a comprehensive resource for doctors, pharmacists and patients who want to learn more about how LDN is helping people now and a clarion call for further research that could help millions more.

There's never been a better time to be prepared. This book is an indispensable basic manual for the real life issues that await us in the decades to come: a treasure trove of practical wisdom. James Howard Kunstler, author of The Geography of Nowhere, Matthew Stein's comprehensive primer on sustainable living skills from food and water to shelter and energy to first aid and crisis management skills prepares you to embark on the path toward sustainability.
